

Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Eagle Butte, South Dakota, can boast of a proud heritage of honest, hardworking, friendly citizens and neighbors who will gather to celebrate the history of their community as it spans the past 100 years; and,

Whereas, In 1910, the Milwaukee Land Company dedicated a parcel of land for public use that was platted into city avenues, streets, and alleys that became the community known as Eagle Butte; and,

Whereas, A wagon train will commence on July 14 at the Cheyenne River and arrive in Eagle Butte on July 15, 2010, as one of the activities planned in celebration of this historic milestone; and,

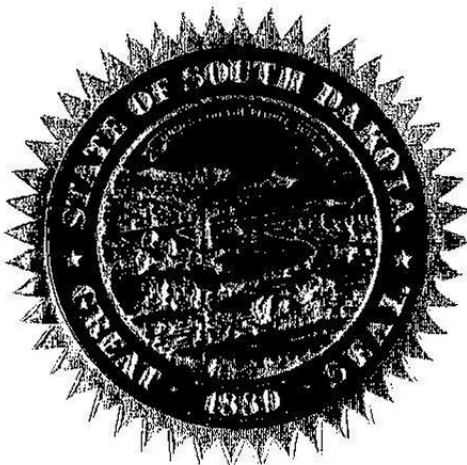

Whereas, On July 15, 2010, an historic Pony Express mail service will journey from the State Capitol at Pierre to Eagle Butte, traveling a distance of 85 miles using numerous men, women, and children horseback riders to relay copies of the historic documents of incorporation for Eagle Butte; and,

Whereas, The residents of Eagle Butte and the surrounding area will join with businesses, neighbors, friends, and families from near and far on July 14-15, 2010, to commemorate and celebrate the community's 100th Anniversary:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim July 14-15, 2010, as

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-fifth Day of June in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Ten.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
